

Hantsport School
Get moving with us every Tuesday and Thursday from 2:30—4:00 p.m.
October 11th-December 15th, 2016!
Grades P-5 Welcome!

A FREE ten week after school program for Hantsport School students will be held each week (Tuesday/Thursday) from 2:30-4:00 p.m. Students should be prepared for either outdoor or indoor activities and should wear comfortable clothes that can be played in! Indoor shoes or sock feet are required as participants will be using the gymnasium. This program is limited to the first 25 youth to sign up and an additional program may be offered if there is sufficient interest.

The goal of this program is to provide opportunities for physical activities in a fun, high energy, safe environment, where no pre-requisite skills are required & guess what....it's free!

How to take part:

- 1. Complete permission form on reverse.
- 2. Return this form to your teacher by ASAP.
- 3. There is limited space so please return quickly.
- 4. Families are responsible for picking up their child/children at the school by 4:00 p.m. (In the event of change / families will be notified in advance). Children must have a note of permission if someone other than the parent/guardian will be picking them up from the after school program.
- 5. Reminder: There will be NO after school program on days that there is no school.

** This program is being designed and implemented by Susan Carey in cooperation with the West Hants Parks and Recreation Department. Although it is held at the school, and in cooperation with the school, it is not a school-run program. However, school rules do apply, along with any rules set out by the leader. Participants must comply with the rules and follow direction of the program leader.
